

Introduction to Magic Wanda and her friends

Magic Wanda

Gender Female.

Age Four dragon years old.

Looks She is a bit of a tomboy, yet the only dragon that likes jewellery. She has a blue body with a pink face, crest, tail and wings.

Personality Magic Wanda is dreamy, confident and inquisitive. She is always on the look out for a new adventure and often leads the other dragons astray.

Quirky traits Magic Wanda is a sky dragon. She has a tendency to fly in her sleep and is a little bit clumsy.

Likes Ice cream, playing and making new friends.

Dislikes Tomatoes, washing behind her ears and not being allowed to go near the Dream Dump – which of course she does!

Spotted Richie

Gender Male.

Age Six dragon years old.

Looks Spotted Richie is grass green all over, with lighter green spots and a floppy yellow crest. He also has a gap in his front teeth, which gives him a whistle in his speech.

Personality Spotted Richie is the joker of the pack and loves mimicking the other dragons and Doowott's grumbling tones. He makes everyone laugh.

Quirky traits Richie is a wood dragon. He's scared of heights, although he'd never admit that to the other dragons, especially Magic Wanda. He only has one wing, so he ends up spinning instead of flying.

Likes Really ripe bananas, being Magic Wanda's best friend and living on Nimbi Island.

Dislikes Grapes, flying (which is hard because he likes to go to People Land), waking up too early and being called by his full name – he much prefers just being called Richie.

Baz

Gender Male.

Age Three dragon years old.

Looks Baz is good looking and he knows it! At three years old he's taller than his years. He's a gorgeous purple, with a well-groomed bright yellow crest and a white(ish) belly. He has big nostrils that give him an extraordinary sense of smell.

Personality Baz is very naughty and mischievous, as well as a little bit of a show-off. Yet, he is very adorable at the same time.

Quirky traits Baz is a beach dragon. Sometimes he flies, sometimes he surfs the air. He has a hilariously snorty laugh and an extra strong sense of smell, which often helps him sniff out sweet things to eat and water to drink.

Likes Grapes, apples, playing practical jokes and making sure he looks good.

Dislikes Cooked carrots, people that don't like having fun and cows.

Nubinu

Gender Female.

Age Five dragon years old.

Looks Nubinu is a very beautiful bright yellow all over. She has long eyelashes and wide bright eyes.

Personality She is observant, a good listener and doesn't talk half as much as the other dragons.

Quirky traits Nubinu is a desert dragon. She really has a dry sense of humour and the most infectious and melodic laugh.

Likes Chocolate, reading and learning about new things

Dislikes Cheese, being bored and the other dragons misbehaving.

Everard Mix-it-well

(but everyone calls him Mix-it-well on Nimbi Island)

Gender Male.

Age One hundred dragon years old.

Looks Mix-it-well is turquoise and orange and has a gentle smile.

Personality He is bright, bubbly and great fun to be around. He's also very wise and a great storyteller. His imagination ticks away at super speed, which makes him interesting to be with, as he's constantly telling stories and teaching the dragons new things.

Quirky traits Mix-it-well is a cave dragon. He talks in rhyme and hobbles along with his walking stick, as he's very old in dragon years.

Likes Fruit and vegetables, teaching the little dragons new things and having a snooze in the afternoon.

Dislikes Doesn't really dislike anything, other than the dragons being naughty!

Doowott

Gender Male.

Age No one knows.

Looks Doowott is a Dragonflyer. He is a mixture of an overgrown dragonfly and a bee, with large goggle-like eyes and buck-teeth.

Personality Doowott is indecisive and constantly muttering and grumbling about looking after the Dream Dump and the mess the dragons cause. Although really he loves his job of keeping the Dream Dump tidy.

Quirky traits Doowott speaks very, very quickly.

Likes Flowers, honey, peace and quiet and a tidy Nimbi Island.

Dislikes Rainy days and having to clear up too many dreams at once.
