

Magic Wanda's World

Nimbi Island is a wonderful island in the sky, hidden by magical Dream Steam, which rises out of Mo, the big volcano.

It is home to Magic Wanda, Richie, Baz and Nubinu, who are all young dragons, Doowott, who is a Dragonflyer, and Mix-it-well, their mentor, and the oldest and wisest dragon of them all. He is the one who rides his bike as we sleep to create Dream Steam, which drifts to People Land and brings us our dreams.

The Island is scattered with mountains, caves, forests and beaches, providing a variety of habitats for the dragons to live in. The island has a Dream Dump, where, when morning comes and humans in People Land below stir, all the dreams that are forgotten end up.

Mo, the Volcano, plops out the lost dreams onto the Dream Dump for Doowott to tidy away. The dragons are intrigued by the dreams that have come from People Land and often, despite Doowott's disapproval, want to take the dream object back to the dreamer and learn more about it.

The Dream-finder leads the dragons to the dreamer. Once they have learned the secrets of the forgotten dream object, the dragons return through the Rainbow Gate, the magical entrance to Nimbi Island.

